

TEXAS NEWS

SAN ANTONIO.

A pretty wedding took place last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Schlesinger, when their daughter, Miss Tennie Schlesinger, was married to Abe H. Gans of Waco by Rabbi Samuel Marks of Temple Beth-El. Mrs. M. Rosenstein of Ft. Worth played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the bridal party entered. The bride was attended by Miss Hodasah Sadovsky and by a little flower girl, Miss Cello Tobias. The bridegroom had as his best man Herman Miller. The ceremony was followed by an informal reception. Mr. and Mrs. Gans left on the evening's train for a short trip, after which they will be at home in Waco. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gans, Miss Minnie Gans and Mr. J. M. Stein of Dallas, Mrs. D. A. Goldstein of Austin, and Mrs. M. Rosenstein of Fort Worth. About 100 guests were present. A large number of handsome wedding presents and telegrams were received.

TEXARKANA.

Mrs. Max Scherer was hostess on Thursday afternoon to the Alps Club, Mrs. O. Parkins making highest score and winning two pairs of silk hose, Mrs. M. Lacofsky winning second prize. A delicious luncheon, consisting of quail on toast, olives, wafers, coffee, cream and cake, was served. Mrs. Jake Cohen will entertain the club next week. * * * Mr. H. Brown called a meeting of the B'nai B'rith on Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. * * * Mrs. A. Ehrlich of Shreveport, La., has been a visitor in the city several days, stopping with Mrs. Brown on Hazel street. * * * On Sunday night the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Abrams surprised them with a bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Scherer on Beech street, prior to their departure for Dallas, Texas, where they will locate. Mrs. Abrams was presented with a beautiful embroidered breakfast cloth as a remembrance of love and esteem from her numerous friends. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Sachs are pleasant visitors in our city before locating in Shreveport, La. * * * Miss Lillie Falk of St. Louis is visiting her sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. I. Kosminsky, in their pretty suburban home.

WACO.

Thursday the Girls' Bridge club met with the Misses Long for an enjoyable game. Their numbers were augmented by Misses Eva Davidson, Rose Friedlander and Carrie Ettleson. A tempting luncheon of two courses was served after the game. Miss Gussie Landman is the next hostess. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Gans reached Waco Tuesday evening and have made their home at 1320 Franklin street, where they will be very glad to see all of Katz left Thursday for Austin, San Marcos and San Antonio. * * * Re- their friends. * * * Mrs. A. S. hearsals for the Juvenile Operatta are progressing nicely and about forty of our most talented children are to take part. Miss Emma Beer is the supervisor and we feel confident from a knowledge of her success that this will be no exception and the public awaits the performance expectantly. More extended notices as to date and other details will be ready by next Sunday.

GONZALES.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Friedman and children of Natchez, La., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Stahl. * * * Mr. Dave Stahl left for Cuero Sunday on business. * * * Mr. Hyman Myers arrived on the 14th from Louisiana, to accept a position with the mercantile establishment of Harry Gurinsky. * * * Harry Gurinsky accompanied by Mr. Sam Friedman spent last week in the Alamo City. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Isidore Friedman visited San Antonio the past week. * * * Our little Sabbath School gave "A Purim Entertainment" which was much enjoyed by all present and the pupils as well as the teachers deserve much credit for the progress made. * * * Messrs. S. Joseph and J. A. Efron made a business trip to Beeville, Sunday. * * * Mr. Sam Lipshitz returned from a business sojourn in Houston. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Sam Friedman spent Sunday in Yeakum. * * * Mr. Lou Lamkay of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited Mr. and Mrs. S. Joseph, Sunday.

FORT WORTH.

Last Sunday night the "Sons and Daughters of Zion" held their regular meeting, which proved to be a very interesting one, and several new candidates were voted on and elected members of the society. After the business meeting a solo was rendered by Miss Reba Gilbert. This was followed by a recitation by Miss Carrie Mandell, which was well received and encouraged until she responded with another. Miss Dora Levy was next called upon and responded with a solo. Mrs. Lillie Goodstein was next called upon and sang a beautiful song in Hebrew. Following this one hour and a half was spent in dancing. Can any one wonder why the "Sons and Daughters of Zion" of Ft. Worth are so strong? * * * The Grand Masquerade Prize Ball, given by Ft. Worth Hebrew School, took place last Tuesday night and was well attended. There were several very good costumes in evidence and prizes were awarded the best ones. * * * Miss Jennette Kopley left for St. Louis, where she will spend several weeks and will then continue on her way to her home in Detroit, Mich. * * * After Sept. 1st, 1910, Mr. L. Gilbert will be in his new building on the corner of 3rd and Houston. This is the building formerly occupied by the Collins Art Company. Mr. Gilbert has been located at his present stand for the past eighteen years, but no matter where he goes, his friends will be sure to follow. The new building is now being worked on and will be ready in time to open by Sept. 1st. * * * The Merry Wives played the weekly game of whist at the home of Mrs. A. Simon, who made the reception rooms exceptionally pretty with abundant carnations of pink and white. The high score club prize, a beautiful Battenburg piano scarf, fell to Mrs. Sam Rosen. The guest prize, a very pretty picture, in water colors, painted by the hostess, was the good fortune of Mrs. R. Goldstein, and Mrs. J. B. Colton received the consolation, a souvenir spoon. The club members present were: Mmes. Gernsbacker, Greenwall, Wolfson, Phillopowsky, Ed Levy, L. Goldon, Goldgraber, Gamble, Colton, Hart, Rosen and Block. The guests were: Mrs. Max Hermer, Richmond, R. Goldstein, T. H. Hermer, H. Jacobs, Mrs. Sol Gordon of Beaumont, J. Gordon and Miss Mollie Miller. Mrs. Phillopowsky will entertain the club next Wednesday. * * * Mrs. Max Davidson of Waco is the guest of Mrs. A. Simon. * * * The "Texas Young Zionists" of Dallas issued an invitation to the entire society of the "Sons and Daughters of Zion" of Ft. Worth to attend a select dance given in Dallas Wednesday evening, April 6th. It is about time the Dallas Zionists are waking up. * * * A surprise party given in honor of Mr. A. Harris of Milwaukee was largely attended Sunday night. A feature of the evening was an ice cream eating contest between Miss Dora Levy and Miss Lillie Schuster, and was won by Miss Levy, who later gave all present the cold shoulder. Many games were played. Those present were: Misses Jennie Rabinowitz, Coplin, Ratner, Dare, Levy, Schuster, Blank, Mandell, Levison, Sabel sisters of Galveston, three Feldman sisters, Gineburg, Messrs. Lausky, Ratner, Dara, Ginsburg, Soizburg, Rays, Rabinavitz of Houston, Levy, Gilbert, Schuster, Cooles, Byrne, Winner. * * * Last Saturday afternoon Rev. Geo. Fox gave a theatre party for his Sunday School teachers at the "Byers Opera House." The play was "The Shepherd King," starred by Mr. Wright Lorrain. Those who enjoyed the play were Misses Reba Gilbert, Irma Carb, Pauline Heinz, Flora Weltman, Marguerite Weltman, Hortense and Lillian Lewis, Dora Levy, Bessie Brown and Miss Blanche Schwartz of Gainesville. * * * Mr. Ben Wolf of Houston is in the city for a few days. * * * Miss Blanche Schwartz of Gainesville is the guest of Miss Reba Gilbert. A dance was given in honor of Miss Schwartz at the Harmone Club Sunday night. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Misses Blanche Schwartz, Reba Gilbert, Rose Pottishman, Irma Carb, Flora and Marguerite Weltman, Bessie Brown, Pauline Heinz, Hazel Brown, Jennette Miller, Hortense and Lillian Lewis, Dora Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Goldgraber, Mrs. Catzenburg, Messrs. Harry Schwartz of Gainesville, Ben Wolf of Houston, Joe Colton, Will Friedman, Ben Levy, Mr. Joe Art of Detroit, Nathan Genz, Ike Hirshfeld, Sam Malling, Simon Alexander, James Westman, Mr. Choates.